With due respect and humble Submission, I beg to bring the following few lines for your benign consideration hoping that my request will be granted —

I was an Head Munshi of Malur Taluk but was retired from service from the 15th October last. Though it is ten months since my retirement took place my pension has not yet been sanctioned. The verification list of all the Taluks in which I was serving is with my service register alone, so I was not able to submit it for sanction. The Taluk Authorities too have sent the roll in the Secretariat office
